

AEGIS THEMATIC CONFERENCE (Madrid, April, 14-15, 2011)

"QUESTIONS AROUND THE EXTRACTION OF NATURAL RESOURCES IN AFRICA"

AUDIO 1: PANEL I: DEBATES AROUND THE RESOURCE CURSE

-ARTUR COLOM (Universitat Autònoma De Barcelona)

PAPER: "Oil in Chad and Equatorial Guinea: the resource curse revisited" (Artur Colom & Alicia Campos)

-HOINATHY REMADJI (Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology, Halle/Saale)

PAPER: "Monetization of social interrelations in the Chadian oil zone: money in the core of family interrelations and alliances"

AUDIO 2: PANEL II: RESOURCES, CONFLICTS AND INSTITUTIONS

CONFERENCIA MAGISTRAL

ERWIN BULTE (Wageningen University / Tilburg University)

"Natural resources and conflict in Africa: A fresh look at the macro and micro evidence"

AUDIO 3: PANEL II: RESOURCES, CONFLICTS AND INSTITUTIONS

-KASAIJA PHILLIP APUULI (Department of Political Science, Makerere University, Uganda)

PAPER: "IGAD's Peace and Security Strategy and Trans-boundary Natural Resources Management"

-THOMAS KRUIPER (Universidad de Valencia)

PAPER: "Measuring the Effectiveness of UN Sanctions in Angola, Liberia, and the DRC Congo"

AUDIO 4: PANEL III: MINING, WORKERS AND COMPANIES

JANA HÖNKE (Freie Universität Berlin)

PAPER: "New political topographies. Mining companies and indirect discharge in Southern Katanga (DRC)"

AUDIO 5: PANEL III: MINING, WORKERS AND COMPANIES

MATTHIEU BOLAY (MAPS, University of Neuchâtel)

PAPER: "The profesionalization of artisanal gold mining in Upper Guinea: situated risk management within transnational practices"

AUDIO 6: PANEL III: MINING, WORKERS AND COMPANIES

SAMUEL J. SPIEGEL (University of Cambridge – Department of Geography)

PAPER: "The Politics of Criminalization in Zimbabwe's Mining Communities: Labour Struggles in the Gold and Diamond Sectors"